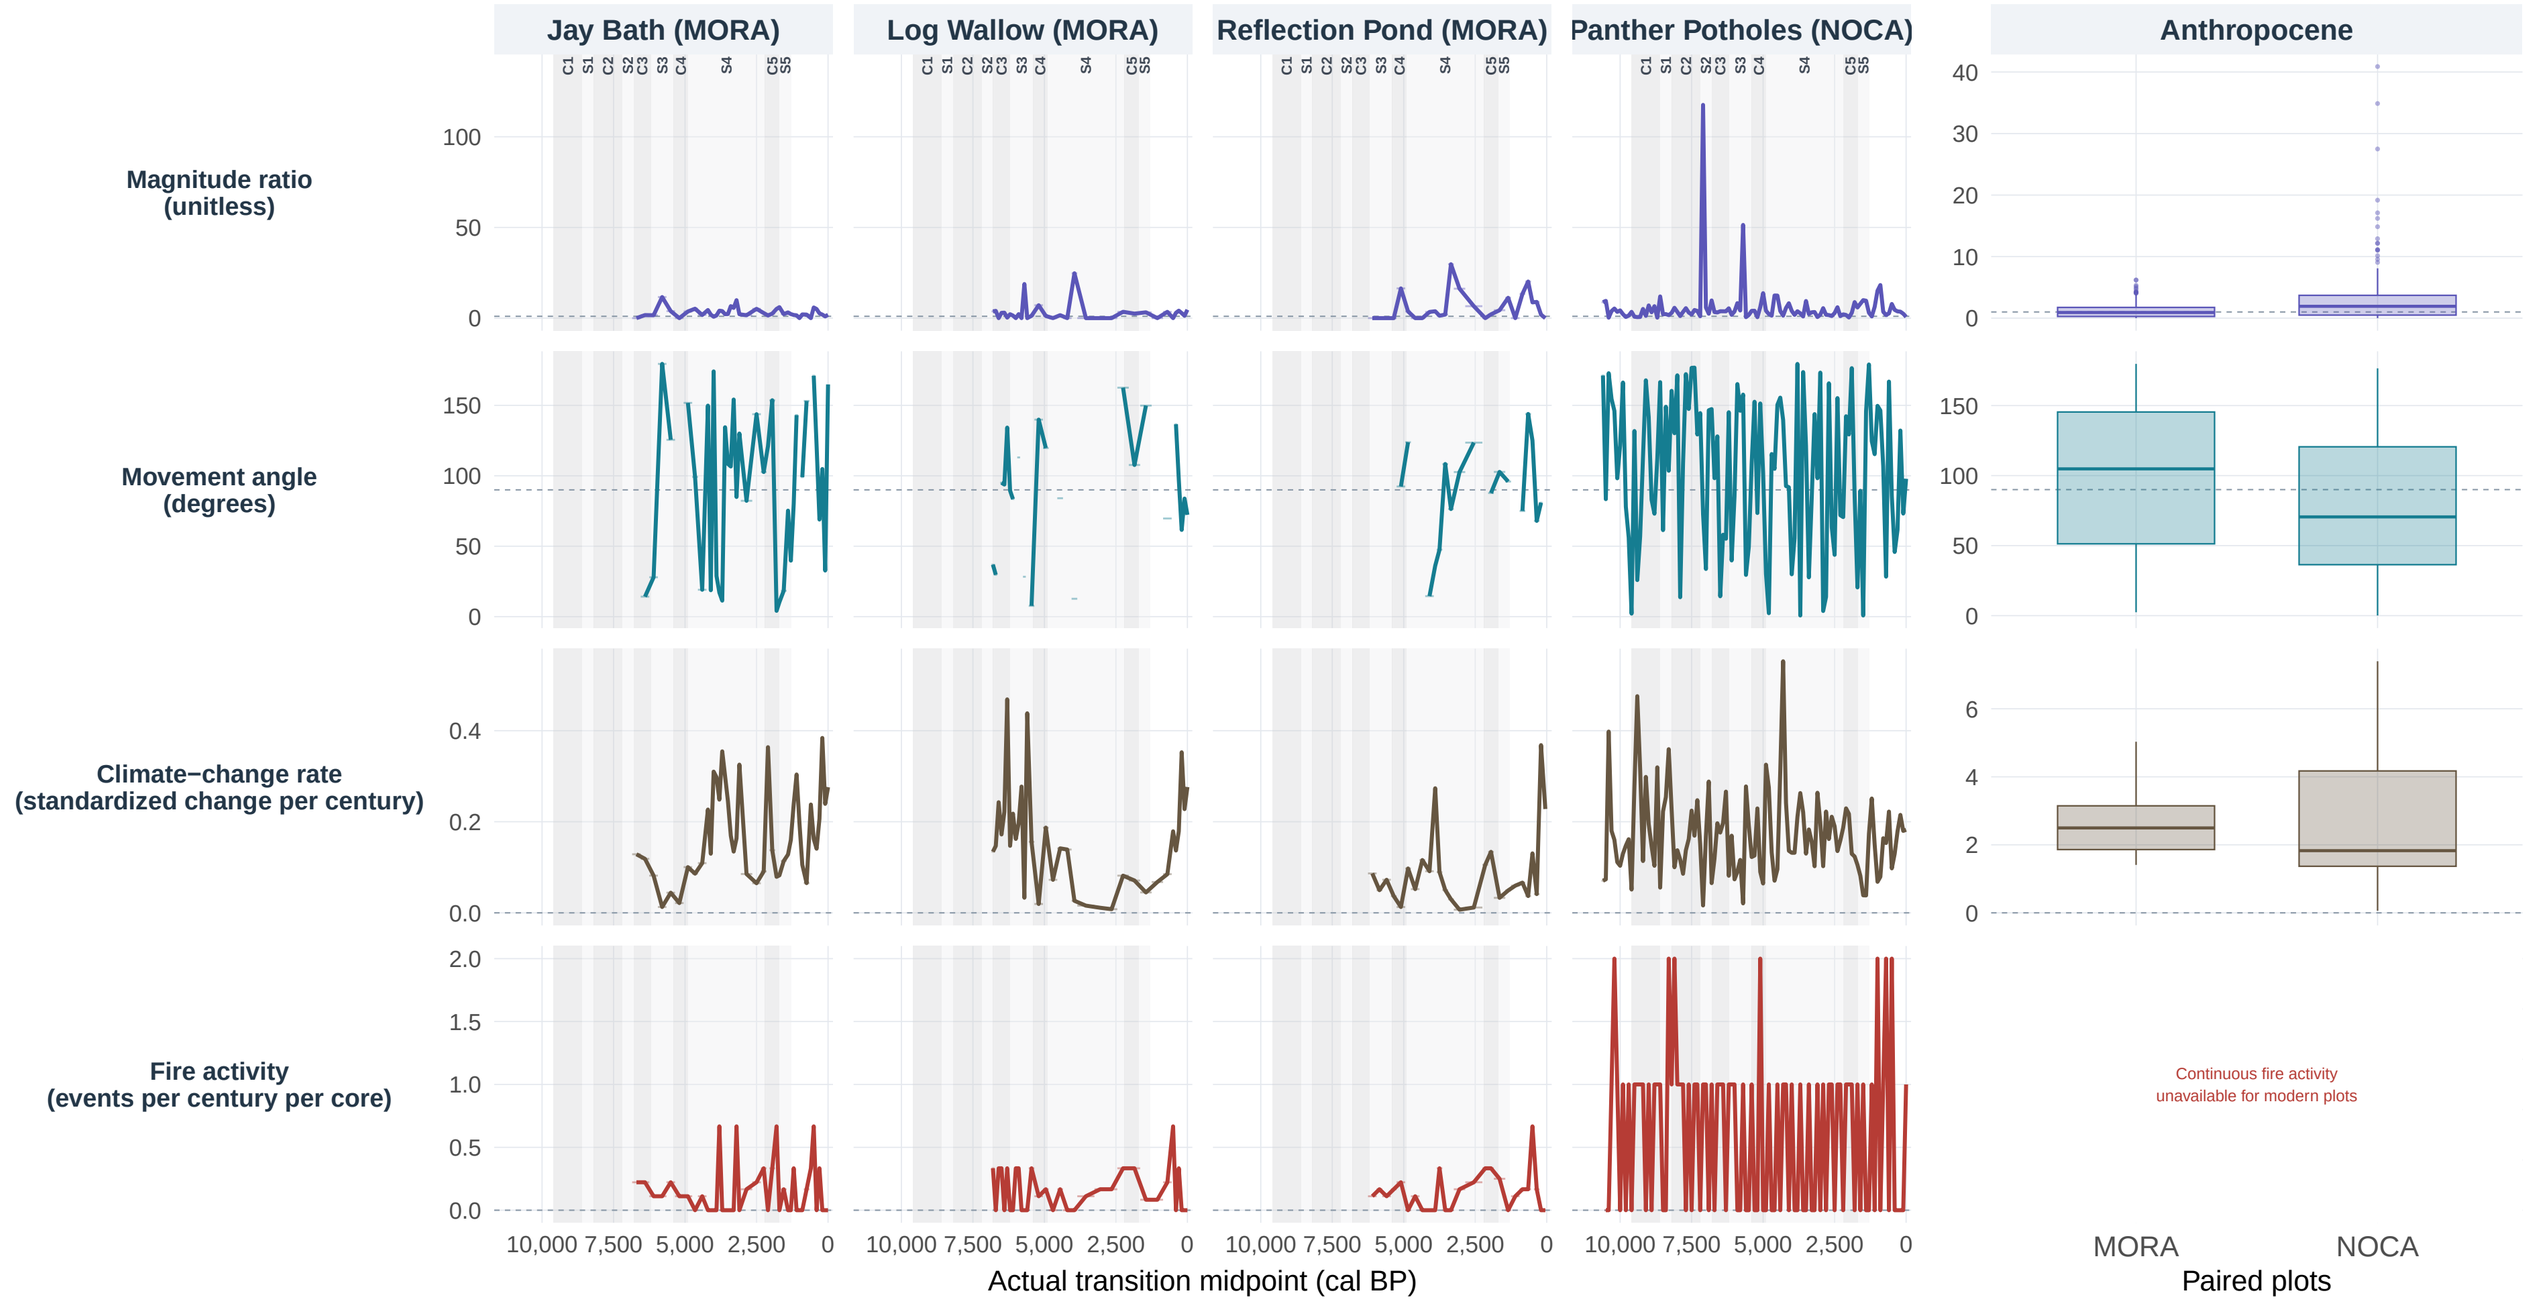
Tracking magnitude ratio, angle, climate and fire

One row per variable with established climate periods; duplicate Holocene rate−ratio display omitted



Primary reconstructed transitions. Horizontal spans show actual elapsed intervals; points and lines show transition estimates.
Four lake columns share response scales and cal−BP axes. Modern plots have separate scales. MORA lakes share regional fire exposure, measured in events per century per eligible core.
Gray bands retain the separate established climate−change and stability periods.